Supervisor Antonovich made the following statement:

"On September 8, 1998, our Board ordered that the County of Los Angeles enter into a Memorandum of Understanding with the Social Security Administration and Immigration and Naturalization Service for a Basic Employment Verification Pilot Project in October 1998. The purpose of the pilot was to provide confirmation of employment eligibility for newly hired County employees through an automated system. All departments participated with 47 sites implemented throughout the County. On November 30, 2001, the Basic Pilot Project terminated.

"Subsequently, on January 16, 2002, President Bush signed into law HR 3030, legislation that extended the Basic Pilot Project for two years. The United States Department of Justice informed us that if the County chooses to continue participating in the Basic Pilot, we should immediately continue using the automated systems already in place to verify all newly hired employees."

Ms. Rone Ellis addressed the Board.
